

Ethel gets the flu Walter gets the flu grandkids get the flu staff gets the flu Carmen gets the flu Marcus gets the flu Elijah gets the flu Barbara gets the flu Marge gets the flu Russel gets the flu doctor gets the flu visitor gets the flu Maria gets the flu Ernest gets the flu daughter gets the flu son gets the flu Antonio gets the flu Herb gets the flu nurse gets the flu staff get the flu Doris gets the flu Neil gets the flu wife gets the flu husband gets the flu grandkids get the flu family gets the flu Anne gets the flu Gladys gets the flu Lou gets the flu Maurice gets the flu son gets the flu daughter gets the flu grandkids get the flu Carmen gets the flu Marcus gets the flu

Up to

6X MORE

influenza-related deaths in adults

65+ YEARS

compared to other age groups¹

Don't be the one who starts it.

GET YOUR FLU VACCINE TODAY.

Reference: 1. National Foundation for Infectious Diseases. Call to action: reinvigorating influenza prevention in US adults age 65 and older. <http://nfid.org/flu-older-adults>. Published September 2016. Accessed June 4, 2018. US/XQIV/0619/0086